

EMERGENCY PROCLAMATION

MARTIN COUNTY, INDIANA

June 5, 2023

Whereas, Martin County, Indiana is immediately threatened by a natural disaster- especially county wide drought conditions, and;

Whereas, the Board of Commissioners of Martin County, as of June 5, 2023, find our county to be at risk of widespread fire hazards because of the ongoing drought conditions and;

Whereas, the Board of Commissioners of Martin County declare a county wide burn ban affecting certain activities is an appropriate public safety response to the fire hazards presented by the current drought conditions;

Now, therefore, we, the Board Of Commissioners of Martin County, declare, pursuant to the provisions of IC 10-14-3-29, that a state of emergency exists in the county and that we hereby invoke and declare those portions of the Indiana Code which are applicable to the conditions and have caused the issuance of this proclamation, to be in full force and effect in the county for the exercise of all necessary emergency authority for protection of the lives and property of the people of Martin County.

We, the Board of Commissioners of Martin County, also declare that, effective immediately, the following activities are prohibited in Martin County:

1. campfires and other recreational fires, unless enclosed in a fire ring with dimensions of 23 inches in diameter X 6 inches high or larger;
2. open burning of any kind using conventional fuel such as wood, or other combustible matter, with the exception of grills fueled by charcoal briquettes or propane;
3. the burning of debris, such as timber or vegetation, including such debris that results from building construction activities and/or wind storm debris; and
4. The use of burn barrels for any open burning at residential structures.

Charcoal from permitted grills shall not be removed from the grills until the charcoal has been thoroughly extinguished.

In addition, we strongly encourage our residents to attend public displays of fireworks and limit their personal use of fireworks to those that do not leave the ground, and that they refrain from using aerial firework devices.

Reference is hereby made to all appropriate laws, statues, ordinances and resolutions, and particularly to Section 10-14-3-29 of the Indiana Code.

All public offices and employees of Martin County are hereby directed to exercise the utmost diligence in the discharge of duties required of them for the duration of the emergency and in execution of emergency laws, regulations, and directives whether state or local.

All residents are called upon and directed to comply with the necessary emergency measures, to cooperate with public officials and disaster services in executing emergency operations plans, and to obey and comply with the lawful directions of properly identified officers.

The burn ban shall be in force immediately and will remain in force until rescinded by the Martin County Board of Commissioners.

In witness, whereof, we have hereunto set our hand this 5th day of June, 2023.

Paul R. George, President, Martin County Commissioners

Aaron C. Summers, Martin County Commissioner

J. Cody Roush, Martin County Commissioner
