In the Matter of: Thomas A. Dysert,
Respondent

Supreme Court Case No.
23S-DI-104

Order to Show Cause

The Indiana Supreme Court Disciplinary Commission, pursuant to Indiana Admission and Discipline Rule 23(10.1)(c)(1), petitions this Court to direct Respondent to show cause why he should not be suspended immediately from the practice of law in this State due to Respondent's failure to cooperate with the Commission's investigation of a grievance, No. 23-1012, filed against him by failing to submit written responses to pending allegations of professional misconduct against him.

Being duly advised, the Court now ORDERS, pursuant to Admission and Discipline Rule 23(10.1)(c)(1), that Respondent show cause in writing, within ten days of service of this order, why Respondent should not be suspended immediately from the practice of law in this state due to failure to cooperate with the Commission's investigation of a grievance filed against him, and should not be ordered to pay reimbursement to the Commission of $500 plus actual expenses incurred by the Commission pursuant to Rule 23(10.1)(d).
